End Point Assessments for Early Years Practitioner Level 2 - ST0888

Unlocking the Potential of Early Years Learning -

Reliable and Fair Assessments to Validate Skills and Expertise

What is an Early Years Practitioner?

Early Years Practitioners play a pivotal role in nurturing and educating young children, facilitating purposeful play, supporting individual needs, and ensuring safety within a diverse range of childcare settings, guided by the Early Years Foundation Stage framework.

They will:

Collaborate closely with colleagues, parents, carers, and professionals, adhering to company policies, to ensure the unique needs of each child are met effectively.

Utilise play as a tool to promote healthy lifestyle choices among children, fostering their understanding of well-being.

Recognise and address safeguarding and child protection concerns, prioritising children's welfare and promptly reporting any issues to the designated authority.

Engage in self-reflection and embrace continuous professional development opportunities to enhance practice and expertise.
